The Old Reliable Jewelry House

of Hopkinsville is, after all, the best place to get anything in the Jewelry line. There's a record behind us, a record of over thirty years; a clean record of satisfied customers, a record of honest dealing, for honest quality, honest prices. It's a record any Jeweler might feel proud of. And when we sell an article we have in mind that we have a record to maintain, and no slipshod methods, no careless workmanship, no lack of quality, is ever allowed to mar the record of the past. But to improve, if possible, this record, is ever our aim, and goods are sold for as low a price as it is possible to sell reliable goods.

It will pay you in the end to deal with the Old Reliable Jeweler.

BERRY ON TRIAL FOR MURDER.

Arrested as Sequel to Coroner's Verdict Tuesday.

BROTHER PROSECUTES.

His Little Daughter is One of the Chief Witnesses Against Him.

Winfield W. Berry, whose wife died a week ago, was arrested by Coroner Allensworth Saturday, following the verdict of the coroner's jury that the woman's body showed signs of violence. He was charged with striking her in the stomach with an iron pan. When struck she screamed and ran outside the house, where she fell unconscious and was taken in by the neighbors and died without regaining consciousness. Evidence showed that she had given birth to a child only a few days ago. A woman near her home has taken charge of the infant, a girl.

Berry denies his guilt. His six-year-old son is a witness and several neighbors heard the woman's screams.

The case was called yesterday and is now on trial. Mrs. Berry's brother, John Helsey, of Gilbertsville, is here to aid in the prosecution. He has employed John Feland to assist County Attorney Duffy. Judge W. T. Fowler has been appointed to defend Berry, who is without means. Steps have been taken to get his children committed to the Orphans' Home.

DEATH OF MRS. COX.

After an Illness of Six Weeks

Passed Away Saturday Morning.

Mrs. Bettie Boulware Cox, wife of Mr. A. S. Cox, died at 2 o'clock Sunday morning after an illness of six weeks. The cause of her death was flux.

Mrs. Cox was a noble Christian woman, having been a devoted member of the Christian church from early girlhood. Aside from home duties nothing claimed more of her attention than doing good to others, and ministering to the wants of those whom she knew needed her aid in any way. Of a kind and sympathetic nature, she always found time to inquire where she could be of most service, and entered into her work of usefulness with a love that is born of a desire to follow the commands of the Savior. Nothing she possessed was too good for others, and those with whom she mingled in this life were uplifted and made happy by her quiet and unassuming ways. But few women of her age had more friends, and her death is generally mourned.

She was married to Mr. Cox in 1895, and three children was the fruit of their union, two of them dying in infancy. She is survived by her husband and little son, aged two and a half years. Mrs. Cox was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Boulware. Mr. Boulware has been an invalid for several months. Mrs. Boulware has but recently recovered from a severe illness, but in all the afflictions of the family, faithful friends and the family physician have been unremitting in their attention.

Mrs. Cox's four brothers, Messrs. Logan and Philip, of Paducah; Alec, of Huntsville, Ala., and Benjamin, of St. Louis, came home to attend the funeral services.

Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. H. D. Smith, and Dr. J. E. Forgarty at the church Sunday afternoon and the remains laid to rest in the Hopkinsville cemetery. The floral tributes were beautiful and numerous.

Tobacco worms are said to be more plentiful than for years and Paris green is in great demand.

DR. MEDER GOES TO LEXINGTON.

Third Assistant Physician at Western Asylum Transferred.

A POPULAR OFFICIAL.

She Leaves Here After Six
Years of Most Successful Experience.

Probably the most prominent lady physician in Kentucky is Dr. Florence Meder, who left the Western Kentucky Asylum this week to accept a transfer to the Eastern Asylum at Lexington. Dr. Meder left Sunday for New York with a party of Louisville friends and will spend a vacation of two or three weeks in New York, Boston and Atlantic City and return in time to enter upon her duties at Lexington.

Dr. Meder is a native of Louisville and received her medical education in one of the colleges of that city. She graduated in 1898 and at once began the practice of medicine. In 1900, after two years of practice, she was appointed third assistant physician at the Western Asylum by Gov. Beckham. But little more than a girl, she entered upon her difficult duties in a way that soon convinced the head of the institution that she was not only a young woman of a high order of intelligence, but a physician abundantly able to hold her own with the sterner sex. She soon familiarized herself with her duties and as time passed endeared herself to every one of the 450 female patients on her wards. A graduate of the Homeopathic school, she took up the study of the Allopathic school and is now thoroughly posted in the science and practice of both schools.

In the six years that Miss Meder has been here, it has been her fortune to serve with four superintendents and as many different assistant physicians, but through all these changes that have occurred from time to time, she has performed her duties so faithfully, so discreetly and with so little concern for the differences of others, that she has retained the good opinion of each succeeding superintendent, and all are willing to testify that she has made a model and exceptional official.

She is a physician in the true sense of the word. A hard student, a close observer and ready in every emergency, she possesses all the strength of purpose of a man with all the tenderness and gentleness of a woman in her treatment of the unfortunate women she has so lovingly looked after.

Dr. Meder is not only recognized as an able physician, but she is a social favorite and will leave many warm friends among the people of Hopkinsville who will follow her with their best wishes for continued success in her new career. She will be succeeded by Dr. (Mrs.) Minnie C. Dunlap, who will arrive from the Lexington Asylum September 1st.
